

Wisconsin has a strong, effective no-call list that protects consumers; that's why we have it and want it continued. This includes voters. Designed to protect consumers, our no-call list does not need to be changed and we would resent any weakening of the list. To those who would change or weaken our no-call list: leave us alone. Also, much thanks to Gov. Doyle and those who gave us our no-call list.